

BE A VOLUNTEER SUPER HERO!

Jefferson County Public Health and the Visiting Nurse Association are seeking volunteers to assist with upcoming H1N1 school-located vaccination clinics for children and their family members who are considered to be at high risk for complications from 2009 H1N1 influenza. These clinics are for those in the priority groups that are not able to get vaccine through their healthcare provider or who do not have a healthcare provider.

Volunteers are urgently needed to help with a variety of assignments to promote orderly vaccination clinic operations.

Non-medical volunteers are needed to help with the following assignments:

- ✓ Greeting and Registration Group
- ✓ Vaccination Support Group
- ✓ Staff Support Group
- ✓ Exit and Observation Group

H1N1 vaccination clinics will be held on the following dates and locations:

- Alameda High School: 1255 South Wadsworth Blvd., Lakewood, CO 80232
November 21, December 12 & December 19 (9:00 a.m.- 5:00 p.m.)
